

A person is seen from the side, using a laptop. The laptop screen displays a software interface for managing vending machines. The interface includes a sidebar with 'Location' and 'Machine' dropdown menus, both set to 'ANHEUSER-BUSCH'. The main area shows a grid of vending machine assets, each with a small image of the machine and its name. The names include 'Chip Merchandiser', 'Fresh Food Cooler', 'Kiosk Shelf', 'Left Basket', 'Left Pepsi Cooler (No Coke Product)', and 'Right Basket'. Each asset has a price tag, such as '$0.07' or '$0.05'. At the top right of the interface, there are 'Print' and 'Export' buttons. The overall scene is dimly lit, with the laptop screen being the primary light source.
