

Self-checkout technology for modern hotels

Skip the headaches of a pantry that requires your front desk's constant attention. With self-service options and the latest technology, you can offer convenient snacks, drinks and essentials anytime, anywhere.

You have options

The entire suite of products can be managed from one system, so you have options on how to best deliver this convenience to guests.

- Self-operate - Stock and manage on your own. You control the pricing, products and profits!
- Third party - Rely on a trusted and experienced 3rd party operator to handle all your convenience needs.
