

CUSTOMER INFORMATION RELEASE AUTHORIZATION

I _____ as the _____ representing _____ authorize 365 Retail Markets to release customer account information including Personal Identification Numbers (PINs) and Account Balances for _____.

Please carefully read each statement below before signing this form.

Statement	Initial
I understand that consumers often use the same user name, email, and PIN information across multiple applications containing sensitive information.
I understand that unauthorized access to the information requested may place consumers at risk of unauthorized access to their accounts on the kiosk references above and to other digital accounts the consumer may hold.
I understand that email is not a secure form of communication, and that non-encrypted transfer of this information is inherently vulnerable.
I understand that 365 Retail Markets cannot be held liable for balance disputes after the release of consumer account information.
I agree to release 365 Retail Markets from all responsibility concerning the security of the information provided.
I agree to assume full responsibility for the security of this information.

By signing below I authorize 365 Retail Markets to export and email the consumer profile information including PIN information.

Furthermore, I understand and agree to the statements checked above, and agree not to hold 365 Retail Markets responsible for any damages caused by the release of the requested consumer information.
